NOTES:

- 1) As you'll see there are three white wine options and three red wine options on our wine list.
- 2) Each of the white and each of the red options represent a unique varietal. Our objective is to provide a good quality selection within each of the most popular varietals.
- 3) Lastly, we have maintained a very reasonable markup on both the glass and bottle prices ... we sincerely want our dining guests to enjoy their wine without having to pay an exorbitant price.
