

How does the Evergreen deposit based club membership differ from traditional dues based membership?

In lieu of annual dues, an Evergreen deposit member is extended club member privileges with an initial member account deposit. The pre-paid member account is then used toward member activities/purchases at the clubs, including golf.

Why would a golfer select deposit based club membership opposed to an annual dues paying membership?

Many golfers want a club member experience but can't get out to play the number of annual rounds needed to justify fixed rate dues. Deposit membership provides the experience, and all member privileges as does dues based club membership, but allows the member to pay only for rounds actually played.

Is there a separate Evergreen membership deposit for member privileges at Candia Woods and The Oaks?

No. One deposit extends member privileges at both Candia Woods and The Oaks; hence the name CandiaOaks.

Beyond the deposit, are there costs or fees to become a CandiaOaks Evergreen member?

*There is NO cost or fee. Evergreen membership at Candia Woods and The Oaks only requires a deposit. The deposit is fully credited to the member's account to be used toward member purchases at the club(s).

How much is the initial CandiaOaks Evergreen membership deposit?

There are four 2027 Evergreen membership options: 7-Day (initial deposit of $1,200 for individual); GOLD (initial deposit of $3,000 for individual) ... Both the 7-Day and the GOLD options extend 14-day advance tee time reservations. For those who don't play on weekend's or weekday league players there is a 5-Day (initial individual deposit of $700) that extends Evergreen rates on Monday through Friday with 7-Day tee time reservations, and for golfers only interested in Toptracer Range a $400 option with discounts limited to Toptracer hourly rates.

Are Evergreen member funds transferable?

No. All Evergreen membership deposits are to be used by the member.

What can Evergreen member deposits be used toward at Candia Woods and The Oaks?

*Evergreen deposits and bonus cash are good toward virtually all purchases at Candia Woods and The Oaks including: golf fees, cart fees (always at our LOWEST RATE), pro shop merchandise, and food & beverage in either of the club's grill rooms. Only the Evergreen Toptracer option is limited to Toptracer hourly rates only, But to receive Evergreen Member discounts all transactions must be made with Evergreen dollars.

What does a CandiaOaks deposit member do if the balance in their Evergreen account gets low?

*Evergreen members can redeposit (minimum of $300) at any time during the season, and there are open periods when reup deposits receive a bonus. This is important because Evergreen dollars must be used to receive Evergreen member discounts.

How do pro shop attendants and club staff know how to identify an Evergreen member?

Evergreen members receive a unique member/debit card and are entered into the CandiaOaks POS system with the classification of Evergreen Member. All purchases at Candia Woods and The Oaks are then made with the membership card or simply by the counter attendant entering your name at the point of sale; you'll immediately come up as an Evergreen Member and automatically receive special Evergreen member pricing.

Are the number of CandiaOaks Evergreen members limited each season?

Yes. In order to provide easy access to prime weekend/holiday tee times, the 7-Day and Gold options are limited.

Besides paying the lowest daily rate for golf & cart, are there other perks for CandiaOaks Evergreen members?

Yes. Evergreen members enjoy the same perks as traditional dues paying members at both Candia Woods and The Oaks, including advanced tee time reservations, eligibility to participate in member-only leagues/tournaments, access to member games, 10% member discount on food purchases at both grille rooms, and discounts at Toptracer at The Oaks.

How does a CandiaOaks Evergreen member track their account?

Evergreen members have access to a 24/7 portal (user name/password protected), or the CandiaOaks phone app; both options provide a real time record of every transaction along with the current real time member account balance.

What's the disposition at season end of the remaining balance in an Evergreen member's account?

Evergreen membership privileges does require an initial FULL deposit each season; season ending remaining balances are carried forward. If an Evergreen member chooses not to renew their membership for an ensuing season, any remaining member account balance may be exchanged for a gift card.

Three Easy Ways to Become a 2027 CandiaOaks Evergreen Member

- (1) Come in to either of our pro shops and make your deposit.
- (2) Deposit over the phone ... Candia Woods 603.483.2307 x101 or The Oaks 603.692.6257 x 1
- (3) CLICK HERE to deposit at our online Evergreen Membership store.